for your support!

For more info about what's playing in Los Angeles, and for half-priced tickets... check out www.LAStageAlliance.com

We're compiling a list of CLASSES in Los Angeles for our website. If you've been in a good class – acting, voice, dance, etc. – please e-mail Jennifer at ARTandSOULcenter@aol.com. Please email who and where the class is, how long you've been studying there, and details about the style of the class, technique, what type it is, etc. I'm not looking to advertise for teachers, just want to hear from students... THANK YOU for your participation!

We're also looking for someone to donate their services to re-design our WEBSITE, with more pages, which can be easily maintained with FrontPage... a very basic design – just the framework... thank you.
